

Ladybugs and Lullabies

Local Mom-Owned Business Lands Coveted Spot in Jewels and Pinstripes Celebrity Baby Gift Bags Cambridge, Ontario- July 1, 2008- Ladybugs and Lullabies no slip baby and toddler hair bows and clips has made its debut in the exclusive world of celebrity gift bags. Quickly following their recent website launch, the Canadian manufacturer of stylish hair clips and accessories has been chosen by luxury gift bag designer Jewels and Pinstripes to be featured in their popular Summer 2008 Celebrity Baby Bags. Ladybugs and Lullabies, founded by Allyson Grabish in April 2007, has chosen to feature their popular line of infant snap clips in the "New Girls in Tinseltown" baby gift bags created by Jewels and Pinstripes. The highly sought after gift bags include high-quality products such as posh carry-alls, baby clothing, shoes and accessories from several different companies. Ladybugs and Lullabies is the first company to feature such hair clips in the gift bags. Jewels and Pinstripes receives a large number of product submissions from companies vying to receive a spot in the high profile bags, but only 20 products are carefully selected for each bag. "We personally review each product received and only accept the best to go into our gift bags," states Julie Kenney, Founder and President of Jewels and Pinstripes. "We feel celebrities will appreciate the quality of these adorable and stylish hair clips and will love the chance to pamper their new little girl." Ladybugs and Lullabies offers parents a unique hair clip which is guaranteed to gently hold in a single strand of hair and even peach fuzz. They use no chemicals on their clips and ensure that quality is a topmost priority. They also carry no slip clips and bows for toddlers and older children. Ladybugs and Lullabies also strives to be an affordable option to other high priced boutique hair accessories while still maintaining the largest selection of styles and designs in Canada. "It is very exciting and flattering to be hand picked to participate in such a high profile celebrity gift bag; especially with so many entries being received," Grabish explains. Since each participating company is provided exclusivity in their product category by Jewels and Pinstripes, there was competition for Ladybugs and Lullabies in landing the hair accessories spot. Grabish also adds, "I feel a great deal of satisfaction that Jewels and Pinstripes recognized the quality and uniqueness of our hair clips and chose to select a small, mom-owned business." Ladybugs and Lullabies no slip bows and clips will be included in the "New Girls in Tinseltown" bags for celebrity parents that have girls, which may include Angelina Jolie, Minnie Driver, Ethan Hawke, Gwen Stefani, Diane Farr, and Marti Macguire of the Dixie Chicks among others.
