For more information, please visit: <http://www.trendytummymaternity.com> About The Spoiled Mama Tamara Johnson, RN, is the founder and CEO of The Sp-OIL-ed Mama. The Spoiled Mama was created in 2005 while Tamara was pregnant with her first child. During her pregnancy she became increasingly frustrated by the available prenatal skincare products available today that often contain harmful chemicals and preservatives, and was then inspired to create products that are not only safer but also Luxurious to help Mamas feel 'Spoiled'. That is how The Spoiled Mama began and which inspired their name: The Sp-oil-ed Mama. Her core principles are still followed and used for everything they create at The Spoiled Mama. They believe pregnant and new Mamas deserve to be Spoiled everyday with not only Healthy Skincare but products that are Beautifully Packaged without compromising Safety and Quality.. And most importantly, Effective Products that are designed for You and safe for the Both of You!! Each and every one of their Mama and Baby products addresses a specific issue for your baby and during pregnancy: from postpartum and breastfeeding to skincare related issues. This is why all of their products are formulated using a Superior Quality of Natural, Organic Ingredients Free from Preservatives, Synthetic Fragrances, Parabens, and Petroleum Derivatives.
